JULIAN MARLEY JUJU ROYAL: A LONG HISTORY

JuJu Royal is a socially conscious cannabis brand co-created and endorsed by Julian Marley, son of the iconic reggae legend, Bob Marley. A two-time Grammy-nominated, world renowned reggae artist, Julian conveys his message of cannabis legalization, wellness, and love through his music and the JuJu Royal brand. He remains an authentic and true representative of the brand and Rastafarian culture. There is no better name to establish trust and convey the positive message of the plant than Julian Marley and his family legacy.

JuJu Royal was founded in 2014 in Denver, CO and pioneered cannabis licensing and product development in the United States and quickly expanded into legal territories across the country.

JuJu Royal's award-winning products are ready to ship and a wide variety of new products are in development and near completion. In the coming months JuJu Royal is launching exciting new products including Exotic Gummies (uniquely spicy, mouth-watering gummies!), Comfort Salve, Revive Lotion, Hemp Pre-rolls, Lip Balm in 4 exciting flavors, and some other surprises.
